The 16th Asian Games in Brief

- Dates: November 12 – 27, 2010
- Location: Guangzhou, China
- Sport Program: 42 sports, 473 events
- Venues: 53 competition venues
- Mission: In the Olympic spirit and the spirit of the Asian Games, the Games seek to promote solidarity, friendship and exchanges among Asian countries and regions and to contribute to the building of a harmonious Asia.

Vision: Thrilling Games, Harmonious Asia

The Emblem

The official emblem of the 16th Asian Games was designed based on the contours of the Statue of the Five Goats, the symbol of Guangzhou. Its soft lines move upward to form the silhouette of the Statue, which also resembles the flame in the caldron of the 16th Asian Games. The design well embodies the symbol of Guangzhou, representing the goodwill of the Guangzhou people and the dynamics of the Asian Games.

The Mascots

Named “Le Yangyang” as a group, the Mascots of the 16th Asian Games are five sporty and cute goats called A Xiang [a:ˈsj ʌ ŋ], A He [a:ˈhə:], A Ru [a:ˈru:], A Yi [a:ˈji:] and Le Yangyang [ˈlə: j ʌ ŋj ʌ ŋ] respectively. Put together, these names mean “peace, fortune and happiness”. They express the goodwill that Guangzhou hopes to bring to Asia through the 16th Asian Games: fortune, harmony, happiness, fulfillment and joy; and also convey the Games’ message - harmony and passion.

The Asian Games Town

The Asian Games Town covers a planned area of 2.73 square kilometers on the east side of Guangzhou New Town, right at the foot of the Lotus Mountain and alongside the Lotus Waterway. Well-equipped and set in a beautiful environment, the Asian Games Town comprises the Athletes’ Village, the Media Village, the International Broadcast Center, the Main Press Center and the Asian Games Park.

Accreditation and Validation

GAGOC will start distributing the accreditation application forms and Users' Guide from March 15, 2010.

The completed accreditation application forms shall be returned to GAGOC by June 30, 2010.

From September 1, 2010, GAGOC will start sending out the accreditation cards of the 16th Asian Games to NOCs that have submitted valid accreditation application forms with photos before June 30, 2010. The bearers of the accreditation cards can activate the accreditation cards at the accreditation centers at the airport or the Asian Games Town /the sub-villages upon entering China. Once activated, the accreditation cards will be used as the official IDs for participation in the 16th Asian Games. The bearers have access rights to different venues and zones according to the access entitlement specified on their accreditation cards.

Immigration / Visa

From October 13 to December 12, 2010, AGIAC holders will be permitted multiple entries into China upon presentation of their AGIAC, together with a valid passport or other valid international travel documents. Card holders will not need to apply for a China Visa or Residence Permit in order to enter the country. Any AGIAC holders wishing to enter China before or after the validity period of the AGIAC, or remain in China after its expiry date, will need to make their own arrangements regarding visas or residence permit.

AGIAC holders should ensure that the information on their valid passport or international travel documents when entering China is exactly the same with the information on the certified document used for application for AGIAC, and that their passport or travel document remain valid at least till May 31, 2011.

AGIAC: ASIAN GAMES IDENTITY ACCREDITATION CARD

Transportation

Transport Services for Arrival and Departure

Provision of shuttle bus services for athletes and team officials between designated sites and their accommodations during the arrival and departure period of the Games. Provision of group bus services for arriving or departing athletes and team officials. The group bus services require advance reservation.

Dedicated Bus Services for Team Events (for team events)

Provision of dedicated group bus services for athletes' teams participating in team events for training and competition. These group bus services require reservation and confirmation.

Transport Services for Competitions (for non-team events)

Provision of shuttle bus services for athletes and team officials participating in non-team events between their accommodations and the applicable competition venues as per the competition schedule.

Transport Services for Training (for non-team events)

Provision of shuttle bus services for athletes and team officials participating in non-team events between their accommodations and the training venues as per the training schedule. These services will stop at 1:00pm on the day of the Opening Ceremony. Athletes who wish to continue to train until later on that day may use an NOC Dedicated Vehicle for their trips to and from the training venues.

Transport Services for Spectating

Provision of shuttle bus services for athletes and team officials as spectators between the Athletes' Village and all competition venues as per the competition schedule. Athletes and team officials as spectators of an event or events of their own sports are permitted to use the competition bus service to the applicable venue. However, priority will be given to competing athletes and their team officials.

Transport Services for Luggage

The luggage belonging to athletes and team officials should, in principle, be carried by the bus they take. If that is impossible, due to insufficient storage space, a separate vehicle will be provided to transport these items to their destinations.

Transport Services between Villages

Provision of shuttle bus services between the Athletes' Sub-villages and the Athletes' Village while the Athletes' Sub-villages are open.

Accommodation

During the Games time, over 10,000 athletes and team officials will be accommodated in the Athletes' Village which boasts 49 apartment buildings consisting of 3,598 apartments. The Athletes' Village will be officially opened on November 5, 2010 and closed on November 30, 2010. It is divided into the Public Area, the International Area and the Residential Area. Separate accreditation is required for entering the three areas.

Media

Mixed Zones

Mixed zones will be set up in the competition venues to facilitate interactions between athletes and the media. As per the requirements of the OCA, athletes must pass through the mixed zones after finishing their competitions, but are not obligated to take the media's questions. Each journalist should complete his or her interview within one minute.

AFs and the competition management teams will provide necessary assistance to ensure that athletes can pass through the mixed zone smoothly.

Press Conference

Generally, a press conference will be organized immediately after each final for the medalists (and coaches/other athletes, if necessary) to meet with the media. The media operation team will usher the participants into the press room. The press conference will be interpreted in English and Chinese.

Medical Services

All competition and non-competition venues will include athlete medical stations, where professional medical staff as well as ambulances will stand by. The centers provide first-aid service during the period when the competition/training venues are open.

The Asian Games Town will have a polyclinic, providing treatment and consultation across the departments of internal medicine and surgery, including ophthalmology, stomatology, physical treatment, massage, X-rays, pharmacy, etc. It also has an emergency room open 24 hours a day, with ambulances stand-by. Any patients who need further diagnosis and treatment will be transferred to designated hospitals of the Games.

Free medical services will be provided to members of the Asian Games Family during the Games time.

Competition Rules

The Bowling competition of the 16th Asian Games shall be conducted in accordance with the World Tenpin Bowling Association (WTBA) Playing Rules and the relevant regulations and rules, in force during the Games time.

In case of any disagreement in the interpretation of the regulations and rules, the English version shall prevail. Any unforeseen cases not covered by the regulations and rules shall be handled with relevant measures adopted by the Technical Delegate, appointed by ABF.

Any disagreement to the decisions of the Technical Delegate, the appeals shall be conducted in accordance with the appeal procedures stipulated in the relevant regulations.

Competition Format

Each game will be bowled on a pair of lanes. Teams and/or individuals will successively and in regular order bowl one frame on one lane, and on the next frame alternate and use the adjoining lane until five frames are bowled on each lane of the pair, completing the game. When there is a question concerning which of the two bowlers will bowl first, it is incumbent upon the bowler on the right to do so.

Other competition format shall be in accordance with the ABF regulations.

Technical Meeting

Date and Time: 20:00 – 21:00, November 12, 2010

Place: TBD

Technical Officials

Technical officials with the certificate of WTBA shall be appointed or recommended by ABF.

A three-member Jury of Appeal shall be appointed by ABF.

Protests and Appeals

Protests concerning eligibility or general playing rules must be confirmed in writing to the Competition Manager not later than 24 hours after the game in which the infraction occurred or before victory ceremony, whichever is the sooner. When a protest involving a foul or the legality of pin fall is entered, and official representative of the NOC involved may be present when evidence is taken relative to the protest. If no written protest is entered prior to the expiration period as stated, the game or games will stand as bowled. Each protest under this rule will not be construed to cover a similar or previous violation.

Errors in scoring or in calculation must be corrected immediately upon the notification of the Competition Manager. Questionable errors will be decided by the Technical Delegate. The time limit for filing protests concerning scoring errors will be one hour from the end of the event or block of games for each day of the competition, but must precede the Victory Ceremony or the start of next round (in elimination event), whichever is sooner. Each protest under this rule will not be construed to cover a previous or similar violation.

Appeal Procedure

All matters, which cannot be settled by the Referee of the Day, will be heard and reviewed by the tournament Technical Committee. The decision of the tournament Technical Committee is final unless there is an appeal to the Jury of Appeal within 24 hours after the decision is announced, or before Victory Ceremony whichever is sooner.

Protests on eligibility lodged after the conclusion of the competition shall be filed directly with the Jury of Appeal within 30 days.

All appeals from the tournament Technical Committee's decisions must be filed in writing with the Referee of the Day or with a member of the Jury of Appeal, or with the Hon. Secretary General of ABF. Each appeal must be specific and include a fee of US$100. If the Jury of Appeal does not uphold the appeal, the fee will be forfeited to the ABF. The foregoing also applies to protests filed directly with the Jury of Appeal. The Jury of Appeal will be empowered to cite before it all papers and persons involved in the appeal at a regularly scheduled meeting or if deemed appropriate, the Jury of Appeal may decide and issue by a mail vote after all material involved in the matter has been studied by each of its members.

Equipment and Clothing

Equipment used and clothing worn by athletes and other relevant participants in the 16th Asian Games Bowling competition must comply with the WTBA regulations and rules.

Doping Control

Doping Control during the 16th Asian Games will be conducted in accordance with OCA Anti – Doping Rules applicable to the Asian Games and will follow the standards and procedures under the World Anti – Doping Programme.

Gender Verification

Gender verification tests shall be carried out in accordance with the OCA Constitution and Rules, except for those athletes who present a valid certificate of femininity issued by the IOC Medical Commission or the OCA Medical Committee.

Victory Ceremony

Gold, silver and bronze medals will be awarded to the athletes / teams ranked the top three of each event respectively.

Fifteen minutes before the Victory Ceremony starts, the medalists shall be escorted to the Waiting Area to get ready for the ceremony. Medalists must wear their NOC official uniforms.

Sport Information

All Sport – specific information for Bowling will be available at the sport information desks. They are located at the competition venue and at the Sport Information Center (SIC) in the Athletes' Village.
